

the Sci-GaLA newsletter

Energising Scientific Endeavour through Science Gateways
and e-Infrastructures in Africa

- It looks like this newsletter didn't reach many people so we are re-sending it -

Issue #4 / Feb - Apr 2016

Dear colleague,

The Sci-GaLA Partnership is very pleased to bring to your attention the latest developments in the field of Africa-EU cooperation on e-Infrastructures. The Sci-GaLA project aims to create a sustainable foundation of educational materials and procedures for the development and management of Science Gateways and e-Infrastructures in Africa and beyond.

We do hope that you will enjoy reading our newsletter!

Best regards,

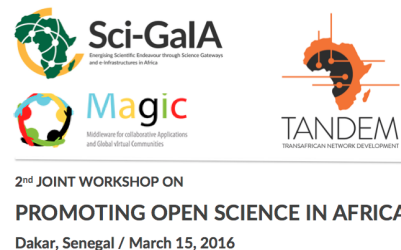

The Sci-GaLA Partnership

Project highlights

2nd Sci-GaLA Workshop on Open Science: Proceedings

The second Sci-GaLA thematic Workshop took place on March 15, 2016 in Dakar, Senegal and gathered 83 participants. More...

Sci-GaLA Winter School started this April!

The Sci-GaLA Winter School - online trainings - aims to develop the skills to integrate scientific applications in the Africa Grid Science Gateway. More...

100%IT provides cloud resources to Sci-GaIA

100 Percent IT provides cloud resources to Sci-GaIA using the OCCl standard through the Africa Grid Science Gateway. More...

Sci-GaIA assigned a DataCite subprefix

The University of Catania, one of the partners of the Sci-GaIA consortium, kindly agreed to assign to the Sci-GaIA project a DataCite sub-prefix. More...

Ongoing: Sci-GaIA survey on African e-Infrastructures

Sci-GaIA launched a survey in order to monitor and assess the uptake of e-Infrastructures services and Science Gateways in Africa. More...

Sci-GaIA SURVEY
Monitoring the implementation and uptake of e-Infrastructures in Africa
TAKE THE ONLINE SCI-GAIA SURVEY

News from the e-Infrastructures world

The Research and Education Network of Uganda (RENU) to host UbuntuNet-Connect 2016

Collaboration enhanced among Tanzanian librarians, researchers and IT personnel

UbuntuNet Alliance accepts a grant for universities in Rwanda, Tanzania & Uganda

Access the Sci-GaIA NEWSROOM for more updates!

Follow the e-Infrastructures for Africa Community!

www.sci-gaia.eu | info@sci-gaia.eu

Funded by the European Union's Horizon2020 research and innovation programme under GA n°654237

Sci-GaIA

Energising Scientific Endeavour through Science Gateways
and e-Infrastructures in Africa

